What to Expect

Discover G-Research and the world of Quantitative Finance. You will take part in our brand new cointegration challenge, where you'll test your strategies on unseen, real world datasets. Play for fun, or bring your competitive spirit for the chance to win prizes! Following the challenge you'll have the chance to network with our researchers over some food and drink!

Please note; the workshop is a challenge that can be enjoyed solo, or in teams of up to three, so feel free to share the registration link with your friends and colleagues.
