

"I don't like rigid categories. Sometimes there is art in journalism and journalism in art. Conscience, heart, beauty, balance and loss of balance are essentials for me."

-Jérôme Sessini

Image: Jérôme Sessini

JEROME SESSINI : FINDING THE RIGHT DISTANCE IN PHOTOGRAPHY

CANON REFLECTION LECTURE

18h15 on Wednesday 15th November
EPFL, Auditorium CE5

Join us for an exclusive event from World Press Photo and Canon.

World Press Photo is a major force in developing and promoting the work of visual journalists, with a range of activities and initiatives that span the globe. During the event you will enjoy unique insights from an award-winning visual storyteller as well as the opportunity to learn more about the importance of visual journalism in 2017 and beyond.

This event is free to attend but space may be limited so please ensure you arrive on time to secure your seat.

Jérôme Sessini

Magnum Associate photojournalist and winner of the 2015 World Press Photo award for News Spot, stories, category, with "Final Flight for Maidan".

Canon